MEMORANDUM

CAM 1-58

SUBJECT: Approach made to Leonid PYLAJEW

DATE: 3 Feb 1958

DATE RECEIVED: 31 Jan 1958

SOURCE: []

CONTACTED BY A PERSON IDENTIFIED ONLY AS REPRES. OF SOVIET VISA SECT. with an offer of ALL-EXPENSE PAID TRIP TO USSR and a show of good faith proposal AN ALL-EXPENSE TRIP OF SUBJECT'S SISTER-IN-LAW.

Subject reported to Source this morning (31 Jan 1958) that he had had a visitor waiting for him at his home last night (30 Jan 1958). The visitor claimed to have come from Hamburg. After the usual introductions, the visitor said that he wanted to lay his business on the line; he explained that he represented a Soviet visa section (it is not clear whether this visa section is in Hamburg or elsewhere) and showed Subject a Soviet passport.

SOVIET REPRES. OF A VISA SECTION HAD A PHOTO OF SUBJ ALONG WITH

ALIAS WOLFGANG

The visitor showed Subject a photograph taken at the Radio Station showing Subject, ~~X~~ORLOV, and ~~X~~KOEHLER. Subject said that he did not remember the photograph being taken and had no idea who took it.

Secondly, the visitor said that he knew about Subject's background, what he does for the Station, and how much money he makes, and said that it was evident from the condition of his apartment and furniture that Subject was doing quite well. However, if Subject returned, this would only be one particle of what he would get in the Soviet Union. As a show of "good faith", the visitor proposed to send Subject's sister-in-law from the USSR on an all-expense paid trip to Munich within two months.

Thirdly, the visitor proposed that Subject take an all-expense paid journey to Moscow with no strings attached and would be free to return to the West if the deal were not to his liking. Subject's answer was that he wanted no part of such business and that if they did want to send his sister-in-law out on a visit, he would be happy to see her and give her room and board.
