REFERENCE(S)	A. MUNI 9368, 3 September 1958          B. EGMA 36745, 5 September 1958          C. DIR 42060, 23 September 1958 1. References A and B outlined the problem which TPLINGO is experiencing in the conduct of its interview projects among Greek repatriates. The project had to be temporarily suspended at the behest of Greek authorities. DIR 42060 has requested the present status of this case and has asked whether <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> still requests the help solicited in References A and B. 2. We have just received the following note from <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> which appears to indicate that the project has been resumed, having been placed more or less under the control of the KYP: "John *Athanassoulis who gives his address as *Boite Postale 90, Athens, Greece, stopped in Friday, 19 September, to suggest we write to the KYP, *Bouboulinas 20, Athens, or to Adam *Roussak, *Solonos 116, Athens, to request the KYP take charge of our Greek repatriate project, thus giving them control and making everybody happy. Mr. Athanassoulis just returned from the Posev conference in Frankfurt, requested a number of Institute publications, and announced that he, Roussak, George *Georgalos were all members KYP, which he characterized as a government research outfit. In the meantime we had already written to a Mr. A. *Natsinas at the KYP address requesting him to intercede to get the project started again. (The latter's name, but not KYP affiliation, was given us by Georgalos.) Thus by accident we seem to have gotten names of four KYP members concerned with this business."
