REFERENCE(S)

1. [] recently inquired in CAM 19-59 dated 26 March 1959, whether Munich Base had any information regarding a "new Russian Information Bureau" which he said had been organized in Munich under the direction of Irina SABUROVA and Dmitry KAROV. [] said that the organization was intended to provide translation and correction services for emigre authors and was also supposed to be able to render advice on Russian questions.

2. We replied to [] that nothing in our files on either SABUROVA or KAROV revealed any tie-in with this venture. [] is aware that KAROV is the pen name of Dmitry Petrovich KANDAUROV, an old intelligence pedlar and fabricator, the history of whose activities goes back to Abwehr days. He has long tried to obtain employment with BGCALLUS but because of his background has been rejected.
