REFERENCE(S)
1. ODACID Dispatch No. 483 dated November 7, 1961 and forwarded to the ODACID Headquarters from the ODACID in Moscow encloses an English-language translation of a Russian-language letter. The letter was obtained by the ODACID in Moscow from the SMOTH Embassy there. The writer is anonymous, but the letter concerns radio listening in the Soviet Union and makes a special point of conveying greetings to "TPLINGO". In general, the contents of the letter are most favorable and contain many suggestions which might be of value from a programming point of view. 2. The forwarding dispatch contains a caveat that ODACID Headquarters should not try to inquire further regarding the letter in view of the fact that ODACID personnel in Moscow were not certain that their SMOTH counterparts had obtained the permission of the Foreign Office before giving them the translation of the letter. 3. It is suggested that <input type="checkbox"/> will find it of interest to review this dispatch. It is further requested that he (1) explore all possible means of obtaining for our use the Russian-language original letter and (2) advise on all other possible approaches which may be made in an effort to utilize this letter for at least a Listener Reaction Report. 4. We would appreciate comments on the above as quickly as possible so that the contents of the letter can be exploited before the letter itself is outdated.
