1. The requests made by [ ] in the attachment to reference dispatch have been noted and will be acted upon to the extent of our still limited facilities.
2. We do not have at hand a person capable of rendering extended documents into German, although several such persons are in process. Meanwhile, we are taking steps to obtain a quantity of continental-type paper which will be used for the preparation of all manuscripts which are intended for transfer direct to indigenous hands.
3. Please make clear to [ ] that we have every desire to backstop him here as effectively as possible, but that our ability to do so is handicapped by the slowness and difficulty of obtaining competent personnel and by the fact that a great many other priority demands are being made upon the personnel which we do have. Until we are able to establish an effective research section along the lines which [ ] mentioned before he left, it will be necessary for him to make out as well as he can with indigenous assistants for whom we will seek to expedite clearance. For the time being I believe [ ] can most profitably devote a great share of his time to the careful supervision of Projects EASTBOUND and EASTERNWARE, and any others along the same general lines that may be developed.
4. In this connection I should like to emphasize once more the importance which is attached by the Rome Office to the successful continuation of EASTBOUND. I should like to have [ ] report upon it fully, through you.
