Excerpt of pertinent information :

1. A member of the Communist leadership, a close friend of Patrascanu, stated positively that the British and the Russians are taking opposite stands in the present internal political strife between the two rival groups. (Situation analogous to December crisis when Radescu government established).
2. The British are supporting the traditional parties (National Peasants and Liberals), as against the leftists grouped into the National Democratic Front (Frontul National Democratic - FND). On the other hand, source is not certain whether the Russians would give their all-out support to the FND in its attempt to seize the government.
