Excerpt of pertinent information :

P. 1-1. This report covers Rumanian activities in June 1946 as reported by JK 71.

2. GAFENCU's presence in Italy and his scheduled meeting with FOPA (MANIU's representative in Europe) are of interest particularly in connection with General RADESCU's expected arrival in Paris. We assume that the three leaders will make an effort to organize the large and influential emigre groups in Western Europe. There are many Rumanian political leaders, diplomats, and journalists living in Belgium, France, Switzerland, and Italy. . . .

P. 3-7. Former Foreign Affairs Minister and Rumanian Ambassador to Moscow Grigore GAFENCU is still in Italy; taking a rest cure at a sea resort in Liguria. FOPA will join him in August when they both intend to make a trip to Paris and contact RADESCU. . . .

9. Rumanian refugees are eagerly awaiting the arrival in Paris of Gen. Nicolae RADESCU, former Rumanian Prime Minister who succeeded Marshal ANTONESCU after the coup d'etat of 23 August 1944 and took refuge with the British Embassy in 1945 after having made a scathing denunciation of "the traitors who are sold out to the occupiers — Anna PAUKER, PATRASCANU, etc." He succeeded in leaving Rumania by air, and arrived on the island of Cyprus in the middle of June, on his way to Paris. It is said that he is the bearer of important messages and instructions from the leaders of the Rumanian opposition. His arrival in Paris has not yet been announced. . . .

This is all the pertinent information on subject in this document. . . .
