SOURCE

1. According to Vasile Grigorescu, former Rumanian Minister to the Holy See, General Nicolae Radescu, former prime minister, will direct the activities of the Rumanian resistance movement abroad.
2. General Radescu will attempt to secure American assistance for the formation of a Rumanian government-in-exile.

(Washington Comment: It is improbable that Radescu, who has little political activity, would assume actual direction of a Rumanian resistance movement abroad. In view of the fact that he served as prime minister and stubbornly resisted Communist encroachments, he might receive some honorary post in any resistance organization that is created.)
