Excerpt of pertinent information:

1. Pamfil SEICARU, prominent Rumanian Journalist who recently arrived in Paris, had written an open letter to Gen. Nicolae RADESCU, dated Palma de Malorca, 14 October 1948, enjoining the General to rally together the anti-Communist Rumanians and to form an army of fighting men. He deplored the internal strife dividing the group and criticized certain leaders for quibbling over future Ministerial positions while thousands of Rumanians suffered. . .

Enclosure 1 contains the letter to RADESCU. For further information, see untranslated document.

SODB-22119--In October 1948 Seicaru wrote an open letter to General Nicolae Radescu, from Palma de Malorca, in which he castigated those Rumanians who led and took part in the coup d'etat of 23 August 1944. During January this document was mimeographed and distributed to Rumanian refugees in all parts of the world.
