Excerpt of pertinent information :

At its meetings of 9 and 11 October the Rumanian National Committee took into consideration the resolution signed by General Radescu and Gafencu, Caranfil and Farcasanu which claimed that the Rumanian Committee had ceased to exist.

The Rumanian National Committee came to the conclusion that General Radescu and his followers had, by their own decision, withdrawn from the Committee.

The five members attending the meeting unanimously decided to recommend to King Mihai the appointment of Mr. Constantin Visoianu as President, in the vacancy created by General Radescu's withdrawal. Mr. Anton Crihan will be asked to give his own opinion in writing.

It was decided to make later proposals for appointments to the four vacant seats.

This is all the pertinent information on subject in this document.
