Excerpt of pertinent information :

. . . 2. HERESCU has been reported by various sources since 27 September 1949 as the Chief Representative in Paris of General Nicolae RADESCU, (present Head of the Democratic Union of Free Rumanians and former President of the Rumanian National Committee). A report dated in November 1949 stated that two members of the Rumanian National Committee, Nicolae RADESCU, bearer of service passport #165, issued at Lisbon on 10 April 1947, and Nicolae HERESCU, bearer of service passport #164, issued at Lisbon on 29 December 1944, arrived in Florence, Italy from Rome on 28 October 1949.

3. A report dated 27 December 1949 stated that the Christian Democratic Party of Rumania, created in Paris by General Nicolae RADESCU, was conceived by Emil VASILIU-CLUJ, a criminal lawyer known for his anti-semitic views, Misu RAUTU and Nicolae HERESCU. This party was described as a cover organization, which, under the pretext of having originated in Rumania, represented the will of all extra-party Rumanians abroad, such as Legionnaires in France and Germany, followers of RADESCU and Ion GHEORGHE, etc. . . .

4. A report dated 20 November 1950 stated that General Nicolae RADESCU was alleged to be ready to "repudiate the King" (King Mihai of Rumania). This report further stated that in such an action, RADESCU would be backed by the (ex-King Carol II) Clique: RAUT, fnu, Professor Nicolae HERESCU, Colonel Gheorghe ILIESCU, Viorel TILIA, and General Ion GHEORGHE. . . .

5. A report dated 17 January 1951 stated that Emil VASILIU-CLUJ planned to set up an Association of Free Rumanians in Exile. This report stated that VASILIU-CLUJ considered himself as a personal representative of General Nicolae RADESCU in Paris, but that he was on very bad terms with Professor Nicolae HERESCU.

This is all the pertinent information on subject in this document.
