Excerpt of pertinent information:

It is reported that the organization meetings for the new Rumanian Committee in Paris, recently reported, have now been completed and its statutes will soon be filed with the French authorities. To comply with the French law the Committee will "devote its activities to relief, welfare, and cultural work" among the refugees but it is believed that in fact it will be highly political and seek to represent the emigration in political and military affairs. The Committee reportedly will be comprised of politicians and personalities and will address letters to the French authorities, to the Committee for Free Europe and to King Michel. It is believed that the Committee will not be opposed to but will support a united National Committee in Exile, that it will be very well disposed towards U. S. activities and policies and that it is friendly to Badescu. . . .

This is all the pertinent information on subject in this document.
