Excerpt of pertinent information:

The letter circulated to the various exiled leaders. . . by the Association of Free Rumanians in the U. S. A., is attached to this memorandum. . .

"I should like to inform you that in November last an organization called "The Association of Free Romanians in the United States" was formed in New York, under my chairmanship, as one link in a world-wide organization of Romanians opposed to the Communist regime. The formation of similar organizations in various other European and Latin American countries is under way. Once the organization of Free Romanians on a territorial basis is accomplished, a federation of all such organizations is to be set up, on a democratic basis, with headquarters in the United States. . . .

Let me point out that said association was formed following the dissolution, on September 14, 1950, of the "Rumanian National Committee which had been established, on May 10, 1949, under my presidency and with the participation of several of the present directors of the new association.

In imparting to you the above information, I want to stress that all main trends of Romanian political life are broadly represented in the board of directors of "The Association of Free Romanians in the United States". . .

Signed,

General Nicolae Radescu
Former Prime Minister of Romania
