DOC. MICRO. SER.

1. Although Subject is expected to come to Belgium he is not yet listed on the registry of foreigners in Belgium nor does his name appear on the population list of the commune of Flemalle-Grande in which the address given in Reference is located. His dossier at the Police des Etrangers does not give any present address for him.

2. The Council of Belgian Administration of Aid to Slavic-Oriental University Students (COBAUSO) decided at its meeting on 5 October 1948 to grant a scholarship to Subject and his sister Ludmila RAGULA, born at Odelsk on 12 November 1925. These students are supported by the International Club of Foreign Students at Louvain for their living expenses and they will also receive a large subsidy from the Holy See. Cardinal TISSERANT has taken a personal interest in their case.

3. The Belgians consider that these D.P. students may eventually be helpful as an influence to counteract the subversive propaganda to which some of their compatriots, workers and miners in Belgium, are sometimes subjected.
