

X/SCHOEBEL, Hans - Fall MONOGRAM

Contact R. 20Mar '66

GRAM's meeting in Switzerland was a strange twist. GRAM received two envelopes and no EEI's. One envelope was full of money - his salary - and the other envelope a letter from his sister GOTTLAROVA. He now has come to the CIS via his sister GOTTLAROVA. GRAM has had another meeting in East Berlin, but KUTZBACH wasn't sure of details (or didn't want to discuss same). He has been told that he should not come to East Berlin so often, but should return in May - KUTZBACH claimed he couldn't remember the exact date. GRAM is supposed to put aside three days in May for training, the assignment of a SW system and radip. He will allegedly be issued a radio and this will be used for corresponding with the Czechs as well as the new SW system. GRAM has had training in radio, but he is out of practice.
