DISPATCH		CLASSIFICATION SECRET SECRET	DISPATCH SYMBOL AND NO. EGBA-70,069
TO INFO	Chief, EE Chief of Station, Germany; MLB		HEADQUARTERS FILE NO. [] 1-16701
FROM	Chief of Base, Berlin		DATE 19 September 1961
SUBJECT	DIZTAG/DIOPTASE/UPHILL/CART/Operations Rudolf REZEK - Possible PCS Departure from East Berlin		RE: "43-3" - (CHECK "X" ONE) * MARKED FOR INDEXING NO INDEXING REQUIRED
ACTION REQUIRED	MLB: See Paragraph 4		INDEXING CAN BE JUDGED BY QUALIFIED HQ. DESK ONLY
REFERENCE(S)	1. We are in receipt of two CALLIKAK intercepts of telephone conversations between the Czech Military Mission in West Berlin and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Prague, indicating that the Counsellor of the Czech Embassy in East Berlin, Rudolf * REZEK [] (born circa 1919, POB unknown), may have departed East Berlin for a PCS assignment to Prague. 2. On 28 June 1961, one REZEK telephoned the CMM from Prague to obtain a report on a West Berlin student demonstration protesting the arrest and trial in Prague of the student group leader, Dieter KONIECKI for espionage. On 29 June, one REZEK phoned the CMM from Prague a second time concerning the purchase of certain medicaments for Otto KLIČKA (EGBA-69818, 24 August 1961, not to MLB). Our most recent trace indicating Rudolf REZEK's presence in East Berlin is the GDR protocol list dated January 1961. 3. We hesitated to report this information at an earlier date (although it has bearing on Fall MONOGRAM) in the hope of receiving positive evidence of REZEK's transfer. BOB files indicate that REZEK last actively figured in Fall MONOGRAM on 6 August 1960, when a scheduled meeting between Alias GRAMM and Jaroslav ANTOS failed to materialize. At that time, REZEK met Alias GRAMM in ANTOS' stead. If REZEK has, indeed, transferred to Prague then Alias GRAMM has either lost his emergency contact or other contact arrangements have been made of which Alias GRAMM may or may not have been advised. We note that Alias GRAMM's regular meeting arrangements were changed at his meeting with the Czechs in East Berlin on 19 August 1961. New emergency contact arrangements were also possibly made at this time. 4. MLB: We have no objections to your advising UPHILL of REZEK's possible transfer, providing, of course, that you do not reveal the grounds for our supposition. Any information which UPHILL might furnish to clarify this would be appreciated.
