: Legal Cover - CAMLET

REF : EGQA-4259, EGQW-7933

1. The plan embodied in reference to make use of this particular one of CAMLET's enterprises for cover purposes would seem to have considerable promise of success, as the sales jobs indicated for cover tend to minimize the problem of compartmentalization of information among various agents and the problem of parrying questions on the part of the regular employees.

2. However, CADORY has advised us of CAMLET's connection with Peter Secklema. You undoubtedly know of this connection and have weighed the possibility of Secklema's becoming aware of the agents that may be assimilated into the firm for cover. The feeling here is that the close operational relationship between CAMLET and Secklema may preclude the use of the CAMLET firm for cover, but your comments are requested.

3. We have checked with the desk handling [] at Headquarters; there is strong objection to his use in connection with this or any other cover firm. Please see EGQW-7933, dated 1 June 1953, from []

4. The section is in favor of the use of this cover for surveillance teams provided, of course, that the questions concerning Secklema are satisfactorily resolved.

5. There is no information available to us on CAMLET's mistress; since she would be witting of the agents using the
