In response to reference request, UPSWING has furnished the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. According to a report dated 1956, CAMLET-1's relations with the Soviet Embassy in East Berlin became increasingly close after he stopped receiving a subsidy from the Americans. 2. Since the middle of last year, CAMLET-1's political activity in connection with East Bloc Missions has diminished. In 1958 he had personal contact with V. SIMONEK, Press Attache at the Czech Military Mission in West Berlin, with whom he exchanged invitations. His former contacts in the Polish and Czech Missions have now been transferred and he allegedly declines all invitations. In addition to SIMONEK, CAMLET-1 had friendly contact with Jerzy RACZKOWSKI, Press Representative of the Polish Military Mission. It is not known if this contact still exists. 3. CAMLET-1 is a member of the SPD, although critical of SPD policies and particularly of Ollenhauer. As a counterpart to the Moscow trip of SPD Chief Editors, CAMLET-1 would now like to arrange a Moscow visit for West Berlin journalists and hopes to discuss this proposal with Willi Brandt. 4. CAMLET-1's political activities seem to be currently overshadowed by his business and private affairs.
