"6. ANDERSON's newest acquisition is V-7627, who is none other than former Kriminaldirektor, Josef SCHREIEDER, hero of Schreieder und die Spione, by L. D. GERSON, published in Munich in 1950 by the Muenchener Dom-Verlag. This brief book outlines the activities of SCHREIEDER, alias Dr. MABUSE, in outwitting British SOE and Dutch CID. From 1942 to 1944, it is claimed, SCHREIEDER captured practically every agent dropped into Holland, turned many of them, and at the height of the operation ran 18 doubled W/T plays back to London. (According to a notice at the end of the booklet, SCHREIEDER was preparing his own book on his exploits, Wir funkten mit London, but we have not seen the opus in any bookstores as yet.) SCHREIEDER was a prisoner of the Dutch until his return to Germany on 17 March 1949. In Holland he had been subjected to 'over 2000' interrogations, served as a witness in 20 trials, and in the 21st trial, his own, was acquitted."
