TOP SECRET

VI. KOPFF'S DEPARTURE ON ESPIONAGE ASSIGNMENT

KOPFF related that on the morning of May 15, 1943, he departed from Berlin for Paris accompanied by NIEMANN, arriving on the following day. They met AHLERICH at the Ambassador Hotel in Paris, and KOPFF was introduced by AHLERICH to Dr. CADMUS whom he understood to be a high official of AST Hamburg and whom he later learned was responsible for the Negro BAARN. He remained in Paris for two days and on the morning of May 18, 1943 traveled to Bordeaux by automobile in the company of CADMUS, AHLERICH, BAARN, and a chauffeur.

A. "KAPITANLEUTNANT" HEINRICH SCHUCHMANN
(Official of AST Le Havre)

BAARN remained in Bordeaux with CADMUS for two days while the Subject and AHLERICH continued to Arcachon in order to complete arrangements for the voyage. In Arcachon he was introduced to one "Kapitanleutnant" HEINRICH SCHUCHMANN, whom he was told was Chief of the AST at Le Havre. He said that SCHUCHMANN as Chief of AST Le Havre was in charge of the western coast of France and made arrangements for the departure of vessels effecting missions such as that connected with the Subject's assignment to Brazil from that area. He said that SCHUCHMANN was responsible for provisioning the vessel, effecting repairs to its motor, communicating with the vessel during the early part of its voyage, and similar arrangements.

KOPFF said that he saw SCHUCHMANN on two occasions-- prior to the initial departure and subsequently when the vessel put back to Arcachon in order to have the motor repaired. He said that he was a millionaire in civilian life and to the best of his knowledge resided at either Bremen or Hamburg, Germany. He related that SCHUCHMANN was always accompanied by his mistress who came on board the "SANTA BARBARA" with him, much to the resentment of the captain and crew members. He furnished the following description of this individual:
