SCHUMACHER, Hans (Dr.) (C)
DOB: 12 June 1907
POB: Muppertal, West Germany

1. (C) Information on file indicates that on 1 April 1955, Dr. Hans SCHUMACHER, aka SCHUBERT, born 12 June 1907 in WUPPERTAL/Barmen; residence, BERLIN 68, Wilhelmstr. 102, was reported to be employed in the Gehlen Organization's Darmstadt German Office. During World War II, SUBJECT, WHO was at that time a Kripo official, was assigned for a time to the Breslau (later Poland) Kripo office. After the war, because of HIS service in BRÉS LAU, He was involved in the Stalag III trial. As a result of this trial, Josia, Prince of MAININGEN, German, and the Breslau Kripo Chief, (fnu) Wielen (until 1939)(Wilotsky) were given long prison sentences by the British. In the course of these proceedings, SUBJECT was arrested and taken to England, where He was held for a time then unexpectedly released by the British. He appeared shortly after this in the HANNOVER, Germany area. SUBJECT was on a Soviet Pick-up list at the time of these incidents. (C-3)

2. (C) Information dated 26 April 1955 indicates that a Dr. (fnu) Schumacher, who had formerly been a Gehlen employee in the Gehlen office (GO), DARMSTADT, was no longer employed by the GO. Schumacher had allegedly been involved in an operational blunder, which had just taken place in BERLIN. He supposedly suffered a nervous breakdown and was subsequently relieved of his position with the Gehlen Group. (C-3)

3. (U) No further pertinent information available.

COMMENT: The above information may be released to the BND provided your organization does not have any objections regarding the reference of the GEHLEN Organization. (90).
