FROM: [redacted]
SUBJECT: Contact with Grallspace 1 27 April 1953
Contact Report #19

Opening of Meeting:

1. [redacted]'s per arrangements made at the previous meeting case officer [redacted] and agent Grallspace 1 met in front of the Non-Stop Kino at 1200 hours 27 April 1953 and then went to the Sternbräu restaurant for lunch where the meeting was held.

Production:

2. None.

Operational Matters:

3. None.

Personal Matters:

4. Final and definite approval was given agent to move into his apartment on 15 May 1953, barring of course any unforeseen circumstances. Agent agreed with case officer that it would be better to move out of the Naturfreundehaus into a local hotel. Agent said he would do so on the first of May.

5. Case officer reported that as far as he knew there was nothing further on agent's immigration status. Agent replied that his sponsor in New York had a friend in the Immigration & Naturalization Service who might be able to check into agent's papers in Washington and perhaps aid in securing a first preference quota for Grallspace 1. Feeling that such a move may become tangled in our own efforts in Washington and that our assistance to Grallspace 1's emmigration may become known to an uncleared person, case officer asked agent not to bring up the matter with his friend. Agent agreed that such may compromise him since his sponsor does not know agent's KUBARK connections.

Administrative Matters:

6. None.
