Opening of Meeting:

1. Case officer [ ] met agent Grallspice 1 at 1600 hours in front of the Mozart Kino on 1 May 1953. Since this day was May Day, all coffee houses and restaurants were closed. It was therefore necessary to conduct the meeting while walking through town.

Personal Matters:

4. Pachatto told Grallspice 1 that he had been in Munich on Wednesday but had learned nothing new about the latter's immigration papers. However, case officer did say that all was ready for moving agent's wife and daughter to Salzburg with two exceptions: (1) she must have a forwarding address to leave with the Tolstoi Foundation and American Consulate, and (2) we must have the negatives for the passport snapshots to be affixed to the travel document for Grallspice 1's wife. Grallspice 1 answered that the address situation could easily be remedied since his mother-in-law lives at the same address in Memmingen as Grallspice 1's wife and could forward mail to [ ] Reichenhall address. Grallspice 1 did not feel that it would be insecure to give this address to his mother-in-law since she believes that Grallspice 1 works for RFE in Munich in some secret capacity and the distant address would not be suspicious. Grallspice 1 then immediately wrote a letter to his wife asking her to secure the negatives immediately and send them to him.
