ATTACHMENT 5

28 September 1953

TO : Chief, SR
Attn: []

FROM : Chief of Base, Salzburg

SUBJECT: General - Operational/PMSOX
Specific - INFLUTTER Test of GRALLSPECK 1

1. Subject, known as GRALLSPECK 1, was tested in Salzburg, Austria, for the specific purpose of establishing the truth behind an accusation made against subject by a CIC informant. The test was requested by [] who were present during the testing. The latter acted as interpreter.

2. Subject produced no reactions to any questions concerning his name, place of birth, and date of birth. He appears to have been truthful regarding his identity.

3. Subject produced no reaction to the following questions that were answered in the following manner:

Did you serve in the Red Army as a Colonel? No.
Subject did serve in the Red Army but the highest rank he attained was that of Captain not that of Colonel as stated in the accusation. In view of subject's age and lack of reaction to the question it seems highly unlikely that the accusation should be true on that specific point.

Did you serve as Vlassov's adjutant under the name of Antonov? Yes.
Subject admits that he was one of Vlassov's aides and one of the persons that was closest to Vlassov. He further states that quite often Vlassov empowered subject to negotiate directly with the adjutants of German marshals and generals on matters of high policy. During the time subject was Vlassov's adjutant he always used his true name. It does not appear that subject is practicing deception or withholding any important information regarding this question.

Were you ever the director of the State Fish Industries (KASHMATA REBA)? No.
Subject states that his father was at one time connected with this enterprise, but denies that he, himself, ever had any connection with it. In view of subject's age it appears highly unlikely that subject could have been
