FI/STC/SPB

Chief, Special Security Division

PZ-954
#52405

1. Reference is made to your memorandum of 14 April 1953 requesting a covert security clearance to permit Subject's use in the United States.

2. This is to advise that all inquiries which this office can make have been completed, however, results of certain overseas inquiries by the Foreign Division, which are required before a covert security clearance determination can be made, have not yet been received. Until results of these pending inquiries are received, no further action on this clearance can be taken by this office.
