"National Army" from among the 20,000 prisoners, and students, under the command of General WILHELM A. ...

having "betrayed" the Germans. He took steps to organize, and formed 4 teams, the first under the leadership of Vasile Mailat, former assistant to the Mayor of Bucharest under the Iron Guard regime, who travelled through the prisons threatening and forcing the Rumanians there to enlist in Chirnoaga's army. Those who refused were transferred by the Germans into a miserable situation, usually ending in death. This Mailat was head of Albastru sector of Bucharest, and commanded part of Bucharest. He sponsored the massacre of Jews at Dudesti in 1940, assisted by Sulei Nicolae. Both today are at Salzburg, and especially Mailat has excellent contacts with certain agents who work directly or indirectly through intermediaries (Rumanian-Saxons) with agents of OIG.

Private MIRCEA POPA
The second team, headed by Popa, assisted by E. Constantinescu, travelled through the civilian prisons to recruit the students, etc. for Chirnoaga's army. Those who refused were sent by the Germans to dig trenches, or to work at wreckage in areas then being bombed from the air. This Popa today is at Munich as a "chief" for German guards, and Constantinescu is at Salzburg, working with Caralvan, through whom Mailat operates.

The third group, headed by E. Patrascu, was sent to Budapest, from where they infiltrated through the lines to attack the Rumanians from the rear, and to commit sabotage, or to provoke desertions. From there they went to Bucharest.

The fourth team was headed by Pavel C. Paleanu, who directed propaganda from Vienna for the "Sina government". The propaganda was bitterly against King Michael and the political men who professed about the fight against the Germans.

Sims agreed with Chiracaga that the latter should regain contact and recruit as many former Iron Guard military officers, as well as Romanian officers who fought with the Germans, as possible (for example, the Iron Guard officers who fought in the Crimea) in the event of a new military effort to fight as a national army along with the Allies. to his own country. He will be sure to do what is right.

The present situation concerns the Iron Guardists and sympathizers in Romania who are in Israel, along with others, due to the evacuation from the CO. There they would be safe in the event the Muslims occupy the East, and there they can form and train a military unit to return to the East. On the other hand, it is no kind of indirect to include the Iron Guard, covertly, in any national political organization formed here. No one should return to Romania, there will not be occasion for criticism regarding their past.
