That group's confidence in Titi CONSTANTINESCU had been shaken because of the misunderstandings which had developed in Salzburg between CONSTANTINESCU on the one hand and Mircea DUMITRIU and Vasile MAILAT on the other hand. DUMITRIU and MAILAT had been appointed by Horia SIMA to lead the Legionary group which had infiltrated the American IS in Austria, i.e. Linz and Salzburg. CONSTANTINESCU had sought to obtain that appointment for himself from Horia SIMA."...
"In order to achieve this aim, Engineer Titi CONSTANTINESCU prepared a memorandum-report which he addressed to Horia SIMA and sent it to him with Father Vasile BOLDEANU in October 49. In that memorandum-report and in his conversations with Father BOLDEANU, Titi CONSTANTINESCU described his achievements in the setup of the American IS, giving examples and detailed facts concerning his personal activity and the information which he had given to the American services. In that manner he sought to regain Horia SIMA's confidence in him, which had been shaken, and in order to use couriers who belonged to the SIMA group."...
"In an attempt to prove to Horia SIMA his devotion and sincerity to him and to his group, which he had stated in his memorandum, Titi CONSTANTINESCU pledged himself to Father Vasile BOLDEANU that he would obtain from General RADESCU the appointment for establishing clandestine contact with Rumania and the necessary funds for that operation, which he would place at the disposal of the Horia SIMA group."...
