| 4. BOLDEANU, a Rumanian priest, was well known in Rumania as an ardent Iron Guardist (legionnaire)...He reportedly escaped and subsequently reached Germany where he became a close and trusted collaborator of Horia SIMA who had fled Rumania after the abortive Iron Guard coup. After Rumania left the Axis fold on 23 August 1944, BOLDEANU joined the ranks of the Nazi-sponsored puppet Rumanian government in Vienna under SIMA and was given the newly-created title of Comandant General Ajutor or Vice Commander General of the Legion. |            |                  |                            |
