Reference: Madr-721 Capt. Whittier

1. According to the source of the reference, Otto SKORZENY will visit Portugal on 9 June 1951 for the expressed purpose of meeting with some unidentified individual. The source has been able to determine that the person SKORZENY will meet is not Portuguese and has rather large financial interests in Latin America.

2. SKORZENY's first visa request to enter Portugal was not granted by the Portuguese, which Government instead asked if he would promise not to engage in any political activity if permitted into Portugal. Following receipt of this information, SKORZENY reportedly had his friend, Ramon Serrano Suñer, Pro-Nazi Spanish Foreign Minister during World War II, intervene with the Portuguese Ambassador in Madrid.
