Austria: SLAVIK and Wilhelm HOTTL - Suspected Nazi Youth Recruitment Agents

21 August 1950

6-7-17--8

In Austria, it is well known, Fr. Adolf SLAVIK, one time Hitlerjugend chief, is actively engaged in reorganizing the most extreme elements of Nazi youth on behalf of his Soviet employers.

MORAWEK, Karl Heinz (RIS)

. . . there are approximately 17,000 Waffen SS veterans in Austria. Lately, Fr. Slavik (Head of the National Liga - National League), and one Alfred Bons, former SS Lieutenant presently in the employ of the Soviets, have made efforts to win over these veterans by offering them positions with "OROP" (Russian Oil Company). Many of these young veterans, although not wanting to fall into the net of Communism, have had no choice, and have accepted the offers of Bons and Slavik.
