*SUBJECT stated to this confidential informant that after his arrival in the U.S., he made several trips to Wash., D.C., to speak to the authorities, not otherwise identified, in an effort to assist in keeping Circassians residing in the Near East from returning to the USSR and becoming Communist. However, SUBJECT stated that the people he met in Washington, D.C. were quite ignorant, inefficient and had no understanding of the problem. Subject stated that he returned home without accomplishing anything and was very much disgusted over the whole affair. Subject was not involved in any pro-Soviet activities while residing in the U.S." what is significant about last sentence? where omitted?

*November 1955, Subject was supposedly injured in a car accident on 25 November 1955. Subject claimed that he was not injured. Mr. BISHOP, manager of TOTOWA Motors, the driver of the vehicle in which SUBJECT was riding demanded a Paterson policeman to drive Subject to the hospital for a check-up.

A physical check-up showed that Subject was not injured. Subject began going from doctor to doctor without any relief from his pain. Subject finally went to a doctor in New York, this doctor charged Subject $30100 per visit. As a result Subject sued the manager of TOTOWA Motors, the driver of the other vehicle. 8 November 1956, the outcome of the case was still unknown."
