Report from [ ]                      Source: Former Japanese intelligence officer, from a Japanese close to a member of the association. THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION IS EXCERPTED VERBATIM TATSUHI Eiichi offered [ ] the comment contained in the second sentence of paragraph, 4. 4. Since the association is small and cannot maintain itself on membership dues, it has had to take donations from private firms and individuals. Tokyo Saibaura Electric Corporation and the Oji Paper Mills have together donated ¥3,000,000<sup>4</sup> and, according to an informant close to the Prime Minister's Office, PAI is also giving financial support. YOSHIMURA denies the PAI has given money to the group.<sup>5</sup> 4. Field Comment: These two firms are probably backing the association in order to be able to utilize YOSHIMURA's Taiwan connections for trade purposes. ¥3,000,000 is not enough to support the association, so YOSHIMURA is doing all he can to get more money. 5. Field Comment: PAI probably supported the association in its early days, but no longer does.
