TO: LO/Automotive Section

FROM: EE/PI/G

SUBJECT: Covert Vehicle MV 81-1, via EE/Sup

REFERENCE: EGQA 39023, 13 April 1954.

1. Paragraph 5 b of reference states: "On 7 April 1954, subject's KUBARK vehicle was returned to Mission control. Subject turned in his German license plates and registration certificate to the German Vehicle Registration Office and informed them that he was selling his vehicle to an American. They stamped his tax card accordingly and de-registered the vehicle. Prior to his action, Mission-blocked "G" plates were put on the vehicle and subject signed a USAREUR bill of sale provided by the Mission Vehicle Control Officer. The vehicle was sold to a notional employee of "Headquarters USAREUR". The vehicle, signed bill of sale, and title, were turned back to the Mission Vehicle Control Officer on 6 April 1954. It is requested that Headquarters Washington Supply Branch records be amended so that German Mission covert vehicle MV 81-1 will be listed as returned to Mission control."

2. It is requested that necessary action to relieve this office of responsibility and accountability for this vehicle be taken.

Chief, EE/PI/G
