Miscellaneous Matters
Possible KUGOWN Agent

REF: HLB-A-454, 18 November 1953

1. The subject of the reference dispatch has left Colombia for Europe. He plans to spend a few days in Lisbon and then proceed to Paris. He expects to remain in Paris for about one month, and during at least the first part of his stay he will live in the Hotel Avenida, 41 Rue du Colisée. In Rome his address will be the Hotel Flora, Via Veneto. He also expects to spend a few days in London and possibly Madrid.
2. The subject hopes to establish some working agreement with ODACID representatives in Paris, as he is certain that he can be of value in KUGOWN-type activities among anti-Communist elements there. In this connection, he anticipates trouble from Hungarian and Russian Communists in Europe, particularly in Paris. He expects that the French, and possibly the English, may offer him a job, but he says that he has no desire to work for those countries. The ostensible purpose of his trip to Europe will be a vacation. In the event that he is not able to find the type of occupation he wants he expects to return to Colombia in February 1954.
