Very little. His realization that should be return to the Sov. Zone he would have to serve a prison term. (formerly was Safety Engineer (in uranium mine (in Soviet Zone)

Access is by personal contact with sub-sources. Agent travels to East Germany and personally debriefs sub-sources and secures documents or photographs from them. Sub-sources ostensibly have access to info through their occupations in the mines and other official positions, and through personal observation of movement of transport vehicles.

Agents own statements.

The security of this operation is not clear. In spite of the fact that he is supposedly wanted by the Soviet Zone police, agent continues his forays into East Germany. Subject is living in the French sector of Berlin and it has been speculated that he might be reporting to the FIS also. Agent's personal security is somewhat jeopardized by his bravado, and reckless methods. The case officer is attempting to tighten the security on this op.

Approx. 25

Name, address and occupation of them. Not (also.

To date this operation has left a lot to be desired. The chief complaint is that sources reports have received varying evaluations ranging from good to downright false. Agent's story of his life has some questionable areas in it and the field case officer is trying to straighten these out. It is planned to cover the agent from this chain and use him as a head agent for another net until these questions have been straightened

The outlook for the CAMBIO chain is indeed dim. Too many of their reports are of no use, and some of them are quite obviously false. It is intended to drop this chain and retain only the head agent (CAMBIO-1). He will not report on RHAPSODY targets in this new assignment.

Very little up to this point. Perhaps one-fifth of one case officer's time.

Not Applicable.
