

9 February 1949

Dear Zsolt,

Your letter of 5 February<sup>7</sup> is deeply appreciated.

I am happy to know that you have accepted the situation as a gentleman and as a man.

I cannot say when I will have a chance to come to New York, but when I do you may be assured that I shall look you up.

Until then I am afraid that your discussion on matters of common interest will have to wait.

Sincerely,
