SUBJECT: DIA/ADP Tour for Member of West German
Intelligence Service

1. Europe Division has invited Mr. Ebrulf ZUBER, chief of the machine records program of the West German Intelligence Service (BND), to visit the United States for briefings and demonstrations of appropriate governmental and commercial Automatic Data Processing systems. We should like to arrange for a tour and demonstration of the DIA/ADP Center for Mr. ZUBER, and it is hereby requested that your office make arrangements for such a visit. He will be accompanied by an escort officer, a CIA staff member from Munich Liaison Base. Mr. ZUBER will be in the Washington area the week of 10-14 October 1966, and it is suggested that any day of that week convenient for DIA be chosen. A two-hour briefing will suffice. Should the briefing be arranged for the morning hours, we would expect to invite DIA representatives to have lunch with Mr. ZUBER.

2. Two copies of a biographic data sheet on Mr. ZUBER are attached.
