1. On 7 July 1949, our source reported that the Russians were carrying on secret construction work in the region of Wohma, central Estonia.
2. A large area in the vicinity has been placed behind a barbed wire fence, closely guarded by Russian troops. The workers quartered within the area have been brought from Russia and are wearing former German military uniforms.
3. It is the opinion of the source that a new airfield with adequate installations is being constructed at this location.
