

Table 18
Iraqi Declaration on Unilaterally Destroyed Munitions^a

Location	Number and Type of Munitions	Contents	Destruction Method	Comments
Al Nebai Area (33 41N 44 06E)	20 Binary Warheads for the Al Husayn Missile	Alcohol	Explosive	Fragments of at least three warheads showed VX degradation products
Saddam Airbase (35 43N 43 16E)	80 R-400 Binary Bombs	Alcohol	Explosive	UNSCOM inspector CAMs gave some positive readings of G-agent ^b
Qadisiyah Airbase (33 48N 42 22E)	240 R-400 Binary Bombs	Alcohol	Explosive	UNSCOM inspector CAMs gave some positive readings of G-agent ^b
Airfield 37 ^c (33 26N 42 52E)	210 R-400 Binary Bombs 125 500-Gauge Bombs	Alcohol CS	Explosive Explosive	UNSCOM inspector CAMs gave some positive readings of G-agent on R400s ^b
Fallujah Proving Ground (33 07N 43 53E)	1,500 120-mm Mortars	CS	Explosive	UNSCOM inspectors verified presence of CS
Hadithah Munitions Stores (34 07N 42 01E)	4,000 Sakr-30 Rockets	Empty	Explosive	UNSCOM inspector CAMs and sampling on fragments gave no positive readings
Mosul Bachera Area (36 15N 43 00E)	2,000 Sakr-30 122-mm Rocket Warheads	Empty	Explosive	UNSCOM CAMs gave no positive readings on fragments
Nassar State Establishment (33 39N 44 18E)	16,500 Firos 122-mm Rocket Warheads 1,000 122-mm CS Rocket Warheads	Empty CS	Melting Melting (after emptying)	Large ingots shown to UNSCOM
Al Basrah Steel Foundry (30 16N 47 50E)	2,000 250-Gauge Bombs	Empty	Melting	Ingots shown to UNSCOM
Ur Aluminum Foundry (31 02N 46 15E)	3,500 122-mm Rocket Aluminum Warheads	Empty	Melting	Ingots shown to UNSCOM
Al Basrah Steel Foundry (30 16N 47 50E)	2,000 250-Gauge Bombs	Empty	Melting	Ingots and bombs shown to UNSCOM

^a Iraq has not provided sufficient corroboration for many of these declarations and has significantly changed them since the original declaration was provided to UNSCOM in February 1992.

^b Testing of samples did not indicate nerve agents.

^c We list only Airfield 37 as a destruction site even though Iraqi declarations are unclear on the destruction locations for R-400s deployed at Saad Airbase, Tammuz Airbase, and Talha Airbase (see table 10 in appendix D). Iraq's declarations infer that some R-400 destruction may have occurred near the deployed airbases.