Lt. General Walter B. Smith
Commanding General
First U. S. Army
Governor's Island, New York

My dear General Smith:

May I take this opportunity to convey my best personal wishes on President Truman's choice for Chief of Central Intelligence.

Congratulations and every best wish on your new assignment.

With kindest regards.

Most Respectfully yours,

Louis Weintraub

Dear Mr. Weintraub:

Your message of congratulations and good wishes on the occasion of my appointment as Director of the Central Intelligence Agency is sincerely appreciated.

This will undoubtedly turn out to be as difficult as anything I have yet undertaken, but I am confident that now, as in the past, I will receive the assistance and support of some first-rate people and that together we will make a go of it.

With kindest personal regards,

Sincerely,
