Dear Mr. Baruch:

How typically thoughtful of you to take time out from your vacation to send a note of congratulations on my appointment. I am greatly in need of encouragement and a kind word from you at this time means a great deal to me.

I don't know yet what I am getting into in detail but expect the worst and know I won't be disappointed. I am going to need all the help I can possibly get to make a go of this and it is a great comfort to me to know that I can depend on you for your advice and counsel which has been so helpful in the past.

Warmest personal regards,

Faithfully,

15/Bedell
