PERSONAL

Dear General Smith:

I learned about your new appointment with a great pleasure and I am sending to you my congratulations. It is my strong conviction that the whole mankind could be saved from a communist cataclysm only if the "last citadel of freedom" as a leader of the non-communist world will fully use honesty, knowledge and firmness.

Considering your nomination from this point of view, I wish you the outmost accomplishments in your important tasks.

Respectfully yours

L. U. Serdakovsky

Dear Mr. Serdakovsky:

Your congratulations and good wishes on my new appointment are sincerely appreciated.

This will undoubtedly turn out to be as difficult as anything I have yet undertaken, but I am confident that now, as in the past, I will receive the assistance and support of some first-rate people and that together we will make a go of it.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

W. D. SMITH
