Dear Karen:

It was very sweet of you to write me a note of congratulations on my new assignment. Actually, I am afraid this new job is going to be very difficult, but these are serious times and everyone must do his or her best.

Mrs Smith is in the Catskills, where we are taking a little leave, but I am carrying your letter up to her and I know she would want me to thank you for it and join me in greetings to you, your father, and your sweet mother.

Faithfully,

W. B. SMITH
