Daily Staff Meeting

Monday, 19 February 1951

Mr. Reber reported that he had reached an agreement with Mr. Barnes of State on the handling of cables within CIA.

Mr. Dulles reported that General Donovan had called him about [redacted] and that he had told him that he would not deal with him under any conditions.

Mr. [redacted] reported that the Director had left a sample of the new Daily Intelligence Summary with the President.

Mr. Kirkpatrick reported that Brig. Gen. Russel Randall is trying to see the Director and that he was going to be side tracked because his primary interest was dealing in munitions.
