Director's Staff Meeting

Noted by OJDCI
3

Friday, 30 March 1951

There was discussion of why the Current Intelligence Bulletin contained so little raw intelligence. Mr. Dulles suggested that it should have contained the reports from [redacted]

[redacted] Mr. Jackson said that he would look into the matter.

Mr. Dulles reported that the defector situation had been straightened out within the agency and that he believed that it was going to be handled properly from now on.

Mr. Dulles reported that progress was being made in coordinating the activities of O/SO and O/PC.

Mr. Kirkpatrick reported that the NSC Senior Staff had discussed the paper on Soviet and Satellite defectors yesterday afternoon and had all agreed on it except the Department of Justice which filed a dissent.

It was reported that the CIA bill to employ retired officers had been reported to the Senate by Senator Russel.

Mr. McConnell reported that he had been unable to see Mrs. Rosenberg on our request for 150 students.

Mr. McConnell pointed out that General Wyman had had a discussion with Mr. J. Edgar Hoover. The Director asked for a memorandum of conversation on this discussion.

The Director decided to call the IAC meeting for 10 on Monday inasmuch as Mr. Dulles suggested an executive session at the end of the meeting to discuss [redacted]
