DIRECTOR'S STAFF MEETING

Monday, 7 May 1951

#917

The Director suggested that upon General Willoughby's return, he might make a survey [redacted] It was generally agreed that a [redacted] survey should be initiated first, but that the matter would be discussed further upon General Willoughby's arrival.

[redacted]

There is a question as to whether we should not have a permanent membership on IIC, and Colonel Edwards' name was mentioned.

The Director stated that at some future date FBI membership in the IAC should be reviewed.

The Director requested that the present whereabouts and status of [redacted] be determined with the idea in mind that he might be of service to CIA.

[redacted]

Mr. Jackson reported that his survey of OPC would be finished this week, and his report submitted by next Monday. The Director would like Mr. Jackson to continue surveying the different offices.

Mr. Jackson reported that the Latin-American Division of OPC needed considerable strengthening.

[redacted]

Mr. Wolf will appear tomorrow before a sub-committee of the House in regard to the Retired Officers Bill. The Director mentioned that we needed retired officers as we could not compete with industry for the required type of civilian personnel. We would, however, be glad to accept retired officers called back to duty.

Mr. Wolf reported that he will have a meeting today with two psychiatric experts to get a professional point of view on the polygraph.
