Attn: Henry P. Bevans, Esq.
Vice President-Law

Gentlemen:

In accordance with the terms of the Maintenance and Support Agreement between our companies and with our recent telephone conversation, it is understood that E-Systems will cause Air Asia to retain in safekeeping and in good order the following:

1. For periods prior to February 1, 1975, all records required by Appendix M of the Armed Services Procurement Regulations for the periods therein required with respect to all contracts awarded to Air America and subcontracted to Air Asia;
2. All records with respect to aircraft required by the regulations of the U. S. Federal Aviation Agency (with respect to N-registered aircraft), The Civil Aeronautics Administration of the Republic of China (with respect to B-registered aircraft), or the bailing agency (in the case of bailed aircraft) provided such aircraft are in the possession or control of Air America, Inc. or Civil Air Transport Company Limited.
3. All financial records of Air Asia for periods prior to February 1, 1975 necessary to justify the financial and tax reporting of Air Asia for such periods.

To the extent required by the applicable regulations this undertaking shall survive the aforementioned agreement, but shall expire on June 30, 1980. Nothing herein shall require creation of new records under the categories described in paragraphs numbered 1, and 3. above. It is understood that

APPROVED FOR RELEASE

Henry P. Bevans, Esq.

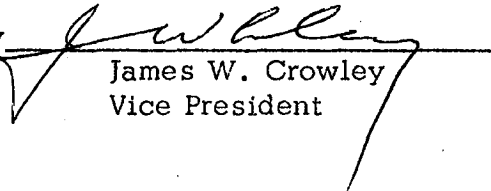

E-Systems and Air Asia will not be responsible for any non-performance, damage or loss caused by force majeure, including fire, war, riot, civil disturbance, acts of God and the like.

If the foregoing is acceptable, please so indicate on one of the triplicate originals hereof and return the same to us.

Very truly yours,

E-SYSTEMS, INC.
