PALESTINIANS: Terrorism

[redacted] //Palestinian extremists may express their opposition to the Camp David accords by attempting to increase terrorist operations. The more moderate Palestinian groups do not appear ready to mount international terrorist acts, although they can be expected to conduct further attacks in Israel and the occupied territories.//

[redacted] //Radical Palestinian leaders such as George Habbash, leader of the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine, have publicly threatened to attack US targets abroad because of Washington's role in arranging the Egyptian-Israeli agreements. [redacted]

[redacted] //Even leaders of the more moderate Fatah have made public threats of action against US targets. Fatah, however, probably made these threats to play to the Palestinians, and Fatah leaders do not appear ready to foreclose completely the possibility of future participation in the peace
