JAGUAR has recently informed us that they have not received or heard of any similar letters to those which we sent them as an attachment to the above reference. The following is the information which they have provided us on Miss Daphne Ellice HOOPER. "We have no previous trace of Daphne Ellice HOOPER but from enquiries which we have made we find that she is at present employed as a telephonist by the British Broadcasting Corporation, Aldwych, London. She lives at the address given by you 9, Shaws Cottage, Perry Rise, Forest Hill, S.E.23. together with her sister. "HOOPER, who was formerly a domestic worker joined the W.A.A.F. in October 1940 being discharged in 1946 with the rank of sergeant. Her conduct throughout her service was "very good". Shortly after her discharge HOOPER obtained employment in the G.P.O. as a temporary telephonist. She resigned in October 1947 to go to Toronto, Canada where she was first employed as a domestic then as a telephonist with the British Columbia Telephone Company. HOOPER returned to England in October 1950 when she commenced work as telephonist with the B.B.C., but twelve months later went back to Toronto to work with the British Columbia Telephone Company. She finally returned to this country in March 1954 since when she has been employed by the B.B.C. "Nothing whatever is known to HOOPER's detriment and she is regarded as a very respectable person and appears to lead a quiet life."
