WOFACT in April 1954. LIEBHOLZ was dispatched to the West under the guise of a German repatriate, which position he legally enjoyed, and with financial help from the Soviets, he set himself up in business as the operator of a restaurant catering to Ukrainian emigres. He made numerous trips to East Berlin to meet with his RIS case efficer and two trips to the Ukraine to visit his family. Shortly after the defection to the West of Bohdan STASHYNSKY, LIEBHOLZ was recalled to the Soviet Union and used in propaganda play designed to show that BANDERA was murdered by the West Germans. He was in poor health when he left the West. It is quite probable he is now deceased.

- 4. After an attempted suicide by hanging, in Munich, on 30 January 1954, by Boris G. GALETSKIY, an alleged defector who arrived in Germany in early December 1953, he confessed that he had been dispatched to the West by the RIS with a mission to gain the confidence of the Americans and of Ukrainian nationalists, to gather information on schools that train agents for dispatch into the Soviet Union, and to find out about individual agents sent into the Soviet Union. GALETSKIY was a Ukrainian, a deputy chief postmaster in Rovne Oblast, active during WWII in nationalist activities. He was arrested by the Soviets in 1944 and sent to Germany by the RIS early in 1953. The RIS used his family back home as a control over him. After GALETSKIY confessed, he was doubled and sent back to the Soviet Union by WOFACT in late 1953, primarily as a means to dispose of him and to confuse the RIS. Contact with him was maintained for a while via S/W letters, but he soon appeared in Soviet propaganda broadcasts and all contact with him was discontinued.
